

PACKING LIST

The Men's retreat will include a very relaxed and casual atmosphere, so feel free to wear comfortable clothing suitable for camp life.

You'll want to be sure to bring:

- * Sleeping bag or bedroll made from sheets and blankets for a twin-sized bed
- * Pillow
- * Toiletries, towels, washcloth, etc.
- * Comfortable clothes, including a jacket or sweater
- * Clothes for work day projects; chain saws & gloves
- * Closed toed shoes
- * Bible and writing utensils

We prefer technology be limited while participating in camp events so your full attention is on your community and your relationship with the Lord.

DOUG HOSTETLER BIO

Doug Hostetler was born one of seven kids on a Mennonite dairy farm in western PA. He was raised milking (and eating) Holstein cows and gathering 10,000 eggs per day!

Doug played football at Penn State during Joe Paterno era along with his brother Ron. Following in their footsteps came younger, Jeff Hostetler, who went on to win the Super Bowl for the NY Giants in 1991. He also played four years with the Raiders and two years with the Washington Redskins. After graduating from Penn State, Doug remained in State College and was chaplain of the football team for many years before moving to Maryland. Doug is the founder and managing member of Hostetler & Church, LLC. For 35 years, Doug's firm has worked exclusively with family business owners and families of wealth helping them steward their wealth. His guidance and wisdom have helped over 200 families flourish through the growth of their human, intellectual, and financial capital with a purpose. He has authored or co-authored twelve books on various financial and family wealth topics.
