

Big and Small Retreat

September 27-28, 2019 at Brethren Woods

Grandparents, parents, aunt/uncles, and other “bigs” are invited to register with a child (“small”) in Kindergarten-5th Grade for a fun overnight retreat designed just for them!

Our theme will be “Jonah and God’s Big Love.” We’ll use this “fishy” story from the Bible to discover how much God loves us - and everyone - with a great, big love! During our time together, we’ll explore this theme through games, Bible study, songs, crafts, fishing and canoeing, stories, nature exploration, and more! We’ll even have a campfire with s’mores and banana boats! Most activities will happen together as a group, working as “big” and “small” pairs, but we’ll also have some time for “bigs” to get a little break while the “smalls” do some kid-friendly activities together with our staff.

Pairs can arrive anytime after 5pm on Friday, September 27th with supper served at about 5:45pm. Our time together ends about 4pm on Saturday, September 28th. The $85 registration fee covers three delicious and healthy meals, overnight accommodations, retreat leadership, and all supplies.
